

Hifz-e-Quran Policy

The harder the job, the more the benefit.

This is usually true for all aspects of life, whether education professional development, or one's personal life. The task of memorizing Quran is monumental, but the benefits that come with it are equally immense.

It's been proved by multiple scientific research findings that Quran memorization strengthens your memory, helps elderly people with better memory, and boosts the IQ level if you memorize at young age.

A child Psychologist in UAE, Dr. Haneen Jarrar, confirmed that Quran memorization doesn't only enhance your memory, but it helps with your learning skills as well. It improves what they call "working memory."

Currently, Hafiz-e-Quran students in APS schools are benefited under the umbrella of their respective corps.
